CHICAGO, October 4.-Wheat prices showed firmness today owing to wet bate Court today, appointed Richard weather northwest and because of Hyland Cox and Charles G. Allen as bullish foreign news. Rains in the administrators of the estate of Arthur Dakotas and Minnesota threatened to G. Plant, the broker who failed last stop threshing and to delay the move-ment of the spring crop. Meanwhile The bond of the administrators was Liverpool advices continued to tell of fixed at $900.

Liverpool advices continued to tell of unabated demand and of supplies being under requirements.

The opening here, which varied from the same as Saturday's close to ½a% higher, with December at 96% to 97%, and May at 98 to 98%, was followed by alight additional gains and then alittle reaction.

Corn Prices Harden.

The appointment followed an application by Mrs. Louise C. Plant, mother of the dead broker. Mrs. Plant tells the court that her son's liabilities are in excess of $50,000, and that she is uninformed of the value of the assets of his brokerage business, but thinks it will be largely exceeded by the claims against the broker. His jew-elry and office fixtures she estimates as worth $300, and she declares he left $25 in cash.

Predictions of frost hardened the Predictions of frost hardened the corn market. On the advance, however, pit traders turned generally to the selling side. After opening 1.5a1. to 1/2 higher prices tended to sag.

WOULD SET ASIDE PENALTY. Swedish Minister Makes Plea for

W. A. F. Ekengren, the Swedish minister, came from the legation's summer hame at Bar Harbor today for a con ference with Counselor Polk of the State Department on the case of Joseph Hillstrom, whose death sentence was stayed by an appeal through President Wilson to the Governor of Utah.

Man Under Death Sentence.

The Swedish minister has been instructed by his government to do his utmost to secure justice for Hillstrom, who, the minister feels, was convicted on insufficient evidence. Mr. Ekengren returned to New York today to seek further legal advice, at the suggestion

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, October 4.—Trading in cotton was resumed on the local exchange today, after a suspension of three sessions, due to interrupted wire service. In the early business prices rose 50 to 54 yoints in a reaction from the sharp slump of last Wednesday on buying sympathy with the steadiness in other markets and on purchases stimulated by the fact that the ginning returns from the
